

decision, which held that, I believe it is the Mendoza case, which held that an acknowledgement does not prevent an individual from then later denying, it does not stop them from denying paternity. With that, I urge the adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Lindsay. Senator Abboud.

SENATOR ABOUD: I will pass on the amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: Okay, any other discussion on the Crosby amendment? Seeing none, Senator Crosby, do you wish to close? She waives closing. We will now vote on the amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Crosby's amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: The amendment is adopted. Before we proceed to the next item, I would like to introduce some guests of the Legislature today. We have some 31 students from the fourth grade from Washington Grade School from Washington, Kansas, and their teacher. And they are in the south balcony. Would you folks please stand and be welcomed by the Legislature. Thank you for being here.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Beutler would move to amend the bill, AM1923, Senator. (See page 2042 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Clerk, I would ask, is that the one that you incorporated to the handwritten?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, that amendment is being copied. It will be passed out to you just shortly, and it is not big in nature. It is a relatively minor amendment, and I think that I will just read it to you, but it has to do with Senator Jessie Rasmussen's amendment, and you may recall that she outlined a number of things that the custodial parent should allow the noncustodial parent to do, certain kinds of relationships between the child
